Claims

- I. To order the divorce of the Complainant and the Respondent;
- II. To grant custody of the son of marriage, _____, to the Respondent, and to order the Complainant to pay child support in the amount of RMB 2,000 per month until the son of marriage becomes financially independent.

Facts and Reasons

The Complainant and the Respondent registered a marriage on May 16, 2005, and gave birth to a son named _____ after marriage on October 1, 2010.

After marriage, due to poor communication and mutual misunderstanding, the Complainant and the Respondent developed emotional estrangement and gradually grew apart. Disputes arose repeatedly concerning differing views on child rearing and family finances. Furthermore, incompatibility in their life philosophies and values further exacerbated the discord between them. This ultimately led to their separation starting from June 1, 2023. Their marital relationship has now irretrievably broken down, with no possibility of reconciliation.

Regarding child custody, the son of marriage _____ is currently under the actual care of the Respondent. The Complainant acknowledges that it is in the son's best interest for the Respondent to have direct custody and agrees thereto. The Complainant is willing to pay child support of RMB 2,000 per month.

Regarding community property and debts, the Complainant confirms that there is no community property or no community debt accrued during the existence of their marital relationship.

To protect his lawful rights and interests, the Complainant hereby files this lawsuit with this Court in accordance with the provisions of the "Civil Code of the People's Republic of China" and other relevant laws, praying for the judgment as requested.

Yours sincerely,

The People's Court of Ganjingzi District, Dalian City
